

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Diana Jordan,

Plaintiff,

v.

J.P. Morgan Chase Bank,

Defendant.

C/A No. 3:18-2195-JFA-SVH

ORDER

Diana Jordan (“Plaintiff”), proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis, filed this Complaint against J.P. Morgan Chase Bank (“Defendant”) concerning the sale of 124 Bakersland Road, Chapin, South Carolina. (ECF No. 1). Plaintiff filed her Complaint on August 9, 2018. Id. Thereafter, in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Civil Rule 73.02(B)(2)(d), (D.S.C.), the case was referred to a Magistrate Judge for review.

The Magistrate Judge assigned to this action¹ prepared a thorough Report and Recommendation (“Report”) and opines that this Court should dismiss the Complaint without prejudice and without issuance and service of process. (ECF No. 9). The Report sets forth in detail the relevant facts and standards of law on this matter, and the Court incorporates such without a recitation. Plaintiff was advised of her right to file objections to the Report, which was entered on the docket on August 14, 2018. Id. The Magistrate Judge required Plaintiff to file objections to the Report by August 28, 2018. Id. However, Plaintiff did not file objections and the time to do so has now expired. In the absence of specific objections to the Report of the Magistrate Judge, this Court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the Magistrate Judge's recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983). The Magistrate Judge has allowed the Plaintiff ample time to respond to the Court's orders and the Plaintiff has failed to do so.

After carefully reviewing the applicable laws, the record in this case, as well as the Report, this Court finds the Magistrate Judge's recommendation fairly and accurately summarizes the facts and applies the correct principles of law. Accordingly, the Court adopts the Report and Recommendation. Plaintiff's Complaint is dismissed without prejudice and without issuance and service of process.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
